J. B. HICKMAN FUNERAL SERVICES

Funeral services were held Monday morning at the Little Church of the Flowers over the mortal remains of Capt. James B. Hickman, attended by the members of the G. A. R. and W. R. C. in a body as well as a host of friends and neighbors, so that the chapel failed to accomodate them all.

Comrade Robt. Taylor was officer of the day. Comrade Gillette, color bearer, with Comrades Goss, Pratt, Barrett, Sanford and Spafford as pall bearers and Boy Scout, Robert Searle, bugler.

Chaplain Norton had charge of the services at the chapel, and Mrs. C. L. Peckham, president of the W. R. C. sang two beautiful solos. The floral offerings were profuse. A fitting tribute to the departed soldier and citizen by the multitude of friends and associates.

IN HONOR OF SERVICE MEN

The reception tendered the Service Men on Armistice Day by the City of Glendale in the gym of the High School was a very successful affair as the attendance completely filled the hall.

The Elks Orchestra gave the opening numbers which were followed by the singing of "America," in which the audience joined. Mr. Frank Muhleman then introduced the speaker of the evening, the Honorable Joseph Scott of Los Angeles, who thrilled the assemblage, not only with his glowing tribute to the boys, but to the "Mothers of America." He was followed by Dwight Stephenson, who responded on behalf of the American Legion, with a short talk of the aims and purposes of that organization.

The Madrigal Club of Glendale, led by Mrs. Charles E. Parker, gave a patriotic selection which was composed by Mrs. C. E. Parker.

The closing number being a patriotic medley by the Elks Orchestra, and the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner" by the assemblage.

Great credit is due Miss Irene Mueller and her pupils of the High School for the beautiful decorations, typifying the spirit of the occasion, and words of commendation were heard on all sides. Refreshments of hot coffee and cake were served at tables in various parts of the hall, which were presided over by Mrs. G. U. Rowe and her committee, Mrs. Eustace B. Moore, chairman of Patriotism for the Glendale Federation, Parent Teacher Association, together with a committee, were stationed at the door to place white ribbons on the Service Men and G. A. R, as marks of distinction.

It is hoped that this affair will mark the beginning of Armistice Day Anniversaries, which ought never to be forgotten in what has passed, to make for "Peace and Democracy."

REPRESENTS CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Dr. Jessie A. Russell represented the Glendale Chamber of Commerce at the banquet Monday evening in the Hotel Maryland, given by the City of Pasadena, and the Directors of the Tournament of Roses.

Dr. Russell was the only representative present from Glendale, and was one of the speakers. There were two hundred present and a discussion of New Year Floral Parade was the cause for the gathering.

SAD DEATH OF MRS. LEO V. BUTLER

Giving her life in order that her little child might live, Mrs. Margaret G. Butler, wife of Leo V. Butler, accountant of the Schumacher Wall Board Company, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Schumacher, died at the Sister's Hospital last week eight hours after undergoing a Caesarian operation.

The child, a baby girl, is doing nicely.

The funeral services were held on Monday and burial made in a Los Angeles cemetery, with all the loving tributes of the bereaved.

The husband, whose parents live on Mariposa Street, has the sincerest sympathy of his many friends in this locality.

WATER BONDS CARRIED

The question of bonding the City of Glendale to the amount of $260,000.00 for the bettering of the water system, and other necessaries, was voted on, on Wednesday and carried by a good majority. The total vote cast was 1540 and there were 1256 votes in favor of the bonds and 284 against the bonds.

The highest vote cast was in Precinct No. 6, at which there were 229 for and 21 against.

Only one Precinct voted the bonds down and that was Precinct No. 8, at which there were 86 votes cast, 29 in favor of the bonds and 57 against the bonds.

Evidently from the vote cast the voters believe that the water bonds are necessary to the prosperity and up-to-dateness of the City of Glendale.

THE CHEERFUL CHERUB

There's a beautiful vine
on an ugly old house.
In all of the corners it
wanders and clings
It loves the old house into beauty almost—God certainly thought of some wonderful things.
